SCHOOL BOARD HAS REAL ESTATE OFFERS

Communications from several real estate dealers and the accompanying discussion took up the greater portion of the time at last night's meeting of the school board.

There was a delegation of three citifrom the South Side, living in King Edward subdivision, who asked he board for another school, which might be used by the children in that neighborhood, and which would not necessitate them going so far to their classes. Alice Sheppard was the first of the three delegates to address the board and he stated that for some time past he, as well as the other citizens in the neighborhood, had felt that there was not sufficient accommodation for the schooling. Some of the children, he stated, had to walk over

As this was particularly hard on the small children, and since it was known that the board was considering making the boardwalk free for several districts, Mr. Sharp stated that he thought they had an early claim upon the attention of the board. Mr. Dush and Mr. Hays also spoke along the same lines. The delegation from the board, in encouraging Mr. Sharp to make his statement, said they would be glad to meet the wishes of the people in the above vicinity.

In order that passengers could land and disembark without being obliged to use James the school, a letter was received from the board suggesting that the board purchase the property of the McInnis lumber mill and the residence known as the Lyons house, in order that more room might be utilized and a better location for an entrance be afforded.

the board to grant the use of the school for the lectures. It was decided to allow this, and that the time should be arranged in such a manner that it would not interfere with the school work. Another suggestion, which was heartily endorsed by Dr. Park, was for the erecting of a flagpole in front of all of the schools and the devotion of a small portion of the student time each week to a form of patriotic drill.

Domestic Science Teaching

Miss Nichols gave notice of a meeting of the board to be held on the 10th of on, which suggested the establishment of night schools for domestic science teaching to be conducted upon the same lines as the system of night schools now in existence on the South side. This would enable a great many girls who had not the opportunity of public school instruction in the work to obtain the benefits of the course. The following reports were submitted:

Superintendent's report, North Side—
High school attendance, 252; public school attendance, 4120; average

1912. Increase in attendance over September, 215; percentages increase over October, 1911, 35.37 per cent. Superintendent's report. South Side—Attendance at schools, 1912; average, 65.13; increase over September attendance, 51. Truant Officer's report—Cases investigated for public school, 198; separate school, 14. The medical examiner reported that he had made 611 inspections. It was decided to hold a special meeting next Thursday night in order to hear the reports of the various com-persons who are dealing with certain questions, and who must be heard from before the 1st of December.

FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 22, 1912.

THE CLARENCE HALL CASE.

The Journal has been doing a considerable amount of talking at large about the failure of its friends to unseat Mr. MacKenzie, with the evident desire to create the impression that the failure was not due to a lack of evidence. The facts are, as pointed out in the Bulletin by one of the lawyers acting for the Opposition party, that when the show-down came the gentleman who had fathered the petition against Mr. MacKenzie refused to appear, presumably because he figured that the grounds of his petition were not sufficient. His action ought to be accepted by the public as convincing proof that in the failure of the attempt to unseat Mr. MacKenzie justice has prevailed. It will not be adequate by the fair-minded portion of the public.

FEELING "SORE."

A newspaper which is run to promote their aims, does the Bulletin in the favor of misrepresenting its course in connection with the conduct of the anti-union gentlemen who are trying to stuff the voters' lists of the city. The Bulletin is represented as the unscrupulous enemy of the tenants' franchise, a cause which the Bulletin was advocating before the city had been honored by the presence of these would-be controllers of the city council. The incident is not of importance except that it shows where the vulnerability of these gentlemen lies. What is evidently troubling them is not that they tried to "job" the legitimate voters by loading up the lists with the names of unqualified parties, but that the jobbery was exposed, but that it has been frustrated.

THE BLOCKADE ARRIVES

The C.P.R. has instructed its agents to accept no more grain for shipment to Fort William, the elevators there being closed. Unfortunately, necessary to consider that the position of the oldest and largest of the railway companies is not worse than that of its contemporaries, and that the Canadian Northern and the Grand Trunk Pacific will in the course of a short time be compelled to also declare a congestion, and refuse to accept more grain. We are then in the presence, and not in prospect only, of a grain blockade. And as the navigation season must be nearing its close, the little prospect that the blockade will be broken in time to get out any more grain by the Canadian routes this fall.

The practical question is whether the Ministers at Ottawa intend to take the steps necessary to secure an outlet for the grain which can no longer go by the Canadian routes next year, after irreparable delay and a good deal of prodding, they asked the Interstate Commerce Commission at Washington for the privilege of sending Canadian grain over the United States routes to meet a few months before. The permission was extended, though the Commission could hardly have been blamed for refusing it, and during the spring a large amount of grain was sent to the Republic en route to Europe. It has been assumed that the Ministers, having had to swallow their pride last year, would do so with less hesitation this year, and would make early application for permission to forward grain via the United States routes. So far they seem to have done nothing about securing this permission. Surely the fact that a blockade is now begun and is likely to extend quickly to the complete paralysis of the grain movement, will induce them to move.

CURRENT COMMENT.

Different Here.

Conspicuously—Materially—candidates are inclined to decline.

The Choice.

Too busy—Here's the question of the British parliamentarians learn their tactics from the suffragettes, who had the suffragettes learned theirs from the parliamentarians?

Last Words.

Toronto Globe—Lambton, the Hon. W. J. Hanna's life on, produced a harvest of apoplexy this year, of which 13,000 barrels were wasted through his tactics from the suffragettes, who had the suffragettes learned theirs from the parliamentarians?

Bitten.

Ottawa Citizen—Edmonton does not love the column. In this it is not by any means peculiar. But it has shown its feelings by the imposition of a house of 125 a week for the privilege of pushing trade and ad buttons in the interest of literature.

Too Much of It.

Montreal Herald—Whatever the publishers may say, there is bound to be a reaction to the editorializing of a plain moral man, against the flood of literature which, truly said, is obsessed with the sex.

Ground for Protest.

Calgary Alberta—What has Senator Loughheed ever done that he should be mentioned in connection with the election of a plain moral man, against the flood of literature which, truly said, is obsessed with the sex.

Current Comment.

Winning Press—It is to be hoped that the expression of opinion on the part of the Canadian Manufacturers' association, as set forth in the Bulletin, will be the official organ of the association, to send representative to hold a conference with representatives of Grain Growers for discussion of the whole question of the Canadian export trade.

Costly Living.

Quebec Gazette—Mr. L. J. Palmer, the Canadian society leader, attacks the present style as outlandish and insists that it will gradually learn to pay less attention to the fashion of the day, and more to the necessities of life.

Stranger Than Fiction.

Ottawa Journal—Truth is stranger than fiction. Were a novel to be conceived of a week on an island, following which the novel would be carried to shore by clippers in the afternoon, a corpse, in the water, confused by a snow storm, and chilled to the bone by a blizzard, would be a commonplace thing in the tiny bookshelves of a November night.

Ontario Taxed by U.S.

Toronto Globe—The Forest Free Press in its latest issue: "On Tuesday afternoon the U.S. Customs shipped a special train of thirteen cars of fat cattle to New York for the S. & S. Company of Chicago. The duty paid in order to get the 'meat market' was over $7,000, or about $10 per head. This makes over $12,000 in duty paid within the past two weeks on cattle shipped from Forest to the United States market. Our farmers need that money more than the U.S. does."

RAILWAY TRUST FEARED.

American States Press Against Alleged Traffic Agreement—Washington, Nov. 21—New Hampshire's state officials today joined with Massachusetts and Rhode Island in protesting to the department of justice against the alleged traffic agreement between the Grand Trunk railway of Canada and the New York, New Haven and Hartford railroads.

Queens Mary Vindictive.

London News—The Queen Mary has just discovered and replaced in the night watchman's room the fact that she had been lying in the dusty garages of the White and Blackfriars palaces. Two detachments, which were searched out at Blackfriars, have been ordered, while the Queen Mary has been ordered to be taken to the Queen Mary.

THINKS WELL OF HIM.
A letter for the City Transfer company, named Henry, was taken to the south side hospital last evening on an emergency condition. At about 9 o'clock, having fallen from his way on with a load of bricks at the top of the fifth street hill, when on his way to the C.P.R. station, Henry was suffering from cuts and contusions, but is not badly injured, the accident having been occasioned by the truck shifting and throwing him off his feet.

Henry was picked up by W. J. McGrath, university candidate, who took him to the police station, where he was nursed to the hospital.

HAD RHEUMATISM IN ALL MY BONES

"Sometimes I Could Hardly Walk!"
2 Boxes of Gin Pills Cured Me

SUFFERED FROM KIDNEY TROUBLE FOR FIVE LONG YEARS. I also had rheumatism in all my bones and muscles—could not sleep at night—and sometimes could hardly walk. I was treated by some of our best physicians but without relief. I lost over fifteen pounds, was very weak, and friends, who had not seen me for some time, were astonished. One day, I met one of our leading hotel keepers, who had been cured by Gin Pills, and he advised me to try them, so I bought two boxes at my druggist's.

Before I had used one box, I felt a big change for the better, and before the second box was gone, I was completely cured. I assure you I can hardly believe it if I had known what I know now about Gin Pills, I would not have spent over one hundred dollars for nothing, when two boxes of Gin Pills cured me.

EVIDENCE FOR SNEED.
Defense Trying to Show He Was Incapable of Mating Believingly.
Port Worth, Nov. 21.—Testimony in support of the defense's contention that John Neal Sneed, the American banker, on trial a second time for the alleged murder of the elder A. C. Brown, had been brought up to a point where he was incapable of mature deliberation, was offered at yesterday's session of the court. A letter written by the older Brown to a friend of Mrs. Sneed, it was testified, contained this figure:

"Tell Lena (Mrs. Sneed) that I am with her and will stand hitched if she will."

This was after Mrs. Sneed had been brought back from Winterset, whether she engaged with the younger Brown. The defense unsuccessfully sought to introduce another letter by which it was sought to prove that the Brownes were cohabiting at the time.
